30 years ago over 100,000 people attended a concert in Victoria Park, east London.

But this was no ordinary concert. It was a carnival hosted by Rock Against Racism and the Anti Nazi League. It was the first of its kind against fascism and racism.

The slogan of the day was black, white and Asian unity.

30 years on, a new generation of musicians and DJs are coming together to celebrate the historic Carnival along with some of the artists involved first time round.

But there is another, more important, reason to join us at the LMHR Carnival 2008. It's time to make a stand against the fascists and the racists who are once again polluting our streets and neighbourhoods.

The message of Carnival 2008 is simple - Love Music Hate Racism.

30 mlynedd yn ôl daeth dros 100,000 o bobl i gyngerdd ym Mharc Victoria, Dwyrain Llundain.

Ond nid cyngerdd cyffredin mohono. Roedd yn garnifal a drefnwyd gan Rock Against Racism a'r Gynghrair Wrth Natsiaeth. Hwn oedd y cyntaf o'i fath yn erbyn ffasgaeth a hiliaeth.

Slogan y diwrnod oedd undod du, gwyn ac Asiaidd.

30 mlynedd yn ddiweddarach, mae cenedlaeth newydd o gerddorion a throellwyr yn dod ynghyd i ddathlu'r Carnifal hanesyddol gyda rhai o'r artistiaid oedd yma'r tro cyntaf.

Ond mae rheswm arall, pwysicach, i ymuno â ni yng Ngharnifal CCCH 2008. Mae'n amser sefyll yn erbyn y ffasgwyr a'r hilwyr sydd unwaith eto'n llygru'n strydoedd a chymdogaethau.

Mae neges Carnifal 2008 yn syml - Caru Cerdd Casáu Hiliaeth.
